

BLUE POINTED SIAMESE CAT CLUB

SATURDAY 2ND AUGUST 2014

Mrs L Jones

Thank you Paula, for the invitation to judge at this friendly show, at a lovely venue. Bacon butties to start the day; which went down really well. A gorgeous lunch, that was very welcome. Thank you to my steward Debbie Lewis, for her gentle handling of the exhibits. I had to remind her that she couldn't cuddle them all day.

Class B191 Olympian Class Male

Only two entered, I wish I could have awarded two certificates.

Oly Miller's Sup OGIGMC Ollivander, a gorgeous red Burmese, with a short, well groomed soft coat. Relaxed, purring and chirping all the time, wrapping his paws around my neck, cuddling and head butting me. A pleasure to handle, well worthy of this award.

Res Hodson's IGMC Will I Am, another red, long haired this time, with a white splotch on his chest. Beautiful soft silky coat, with long tufts in his ears, and beautiful eyes. Very friendly and relaxed, another cuddly boy, who enjoyed the attention. Well presented, and unlucky to come up against the winner.

Class B205 Imperial Class A.C. Pedigree Pet Grand Master Cat

Imp Brown's GMC Tsar, a gorgeous Caramel Point Siamese boy, who walked out of his pen to meet me. A lovely lad who talked all the time, typical of a Siamese. A heavy lad with a soft silky coat, and gorgeous blue eyes, he chatted and purred all the while. Very alert and outgoing, well presented.
