COTY EXHIBIT 2018.

These are the interim COTY results, these will not be confirmed nor finalized till all scores have been verified & to give an opportunity to anyone who thinks they should have different score to query these results.

If you have query, you should contact me directly by e-mail, my address is;

hansson808@btinternet.com

You have until the end of July to make any query, anything received after that date will be too late to amend, you should supply details relating to your query, including the shows concerned & points you believe you may have won. Only corrections which would alter the placing need be submitted though those listed may, if they think their score is adrift may wish their total amended. During August the confirmed results will appear on the GCCF website after that time no further adjustments will be made. Please do this as early as possible.

Congratulations to all contenders, some have been very closely contested, particularly the Persian & Oriental sections, this year for the 1st time we have the same exhibit as both a Kitten & Adult Winner in its section & the Overall Kitten winner, the same exhibit was also 2017 Supreme Adult. Quite a haul in one year.

Please do not request other information unless it is going to impact on the overall scores. You may if you wish copy this information on other sites.
