GCCF DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES – FIXED PENALTIES

Any person who incurs a fixed penalty may request in writing within 28 days of the date of the letter from the GCCF Office advising of the breach of rule(s) that the complaint be preferred to the Disciplinary Committee as an alternative to accepting the fixed penalty, but must understand that, if the case is found proved, the penalty may be higher and costs may be applied.

Whenever a formal complaint has been proved in whole or in part (including the imposition of a fixed penalty) the order shall, subject to paragraph 12 (12) (d) of the GCCF Bye-Laws, be published as soon as practicable in the official publication of the Council or on the Council website.

NB. The rules quoted are as they have now been amended and re-numbered.

BYE-LAWS

GCCF Bye-Laws Clause 5 (3)

Every Member Club shall send to the Council Office before the 1st May in any year:

(a) A copy of the accounts of the Club which have been examined and signed by a suitable independent person for the previous year in the form of an Income and Expenditure Account with a supporting Balance Sheet, including an analysis of the subscription income and a statement of paid up members including life members. (Note: ‘Previous year’ in this context means the Club financial year completed prior to 1st May.)

(b) The names of the Officers and Members of the Committee of the Club for the current year, none of whom may be an officer or committee member of any non-member organisation whose activities include the registration and/or licensing or holding of shows for pedigree cats, without the prior consent of the Board.

(c) An up-to-date copy of the Club’s Rules or if no alterations have been made since the last return, a statement to this effect.

(d) The name of the Club’s delegate or delegates and any substitute delegate or delegates for the next Council year which shall run from 1st June each year.

*If any member Club without due reason acceptable to Council fails to comply with this sub paragraph the Club shall not send a delegate or delegates to the Council during the following year. Member Clubs who have a problem completing the return for any reason should inform the Board in writing prior to May 1st for assistance. Those that do not and have to be contacted in order to obtain all or part of the listed paperwork will be charged an administrative fee.

Penalty: Fine of £50. Non payment of fine will result in a proposal to Council to suspend the Club from membership of the GCCF.

GCCF Bye-Law Clause 12 (1)(c)

Any conviction by a court of Justice of any offence against any act, statute, by-law or regulation relating to the protection, treatment or welfare of any animal or animals.

Penalty: Where the Court has banned the defendant from keeping animals, the defendant will be suspended from the GCCF for the same period of time as applied by the Court. Once the ban by the Court has been lifted, the defendant may apply to the Disciplinary Committee to have the GCCF suspension lifted.
RULES SECTION 1 – THE REGISTER

Failure to supply a Certificate of Entirety to GCCF Office
Section 1, Rule 1a. Only cats/kittens required for breeding purposes should be registered on the Active Register. All male cats used at stud must have a Certificate of Entirety deposited with the GCCF prior to registration of their first litter of kittens. They must be uniquely identifiable at the time of the examination by microchip or alphanumeric tattoo; the number of which is noted on the certificate and included in the cat’s own veterinary records.
Applies where stud is not owned by the person who is registering the kittens.
Penalty: Stud owner informed in writing that unless Certificate of Entirety is supplied to GCCF Office within 28 days the following shall apply: Fine £50, suspension until Certificate of Entirety supplied and fine paid.
A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Change from Active to Non-Active without the permission of the legal owner.
Section 1, Rule 1f. The registered owner ONLY may apply to transfer a cat from the Active to the Non-Active Register, on payment of the appropriate fee, except where in special circumstances the Board of Directors may order a transfer. If at the time of application the cat has been sold, the legal owner must also sign the application.
(amended 24.10.12)
Penalty: First offence: Fine £50 suspension until paid, a second breach will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Failure to transfer a cat to the active register when a written commitment to do so, once a health and/or DNA test(s) has been satisfactorily completed, has been supplied to the owner at the time of sale.
Section 1, Rule 1h
When DNA tests and/or health checks are mandatory for active stats on the GCCF register (as at 1e and 1g) the breeder, or the person who first registered the cat, will not be charged a fee for a change from non-active. Note: those who buy cats from breeders with the condition that change of status will be applied for when a satisfactory test result is obtained should have a signed statement of this commitment at the time of sale.
Penalty: First offence: Fine £50, suspension until the transfer is made and the fine paid, a second breach will result in double the penalty, a third breach three time the penalty etc.

Failure to declare a kitten
Section 1, Rule 3a. When the first kitten of any litter is registered by the breeder a declaration shall be completed giving the following information:
The number of kittens in the litter
The breed and apparent colour of each kitten
The sex of each kitten
This information must be provided for each kitten alive when the first kitten is registered.
Penalty: First offence: Fine £10, suspension until paid, second breach £25 and suspension until paid.
Subsequent offences will be referred to the Disciplinary Committee.

Failure to supply a properly completed Certificate of Mating Section 1, Rule 3d. When a litter is registered, the application to register must be accompanied by a copy of the Certificate of Mating unless the person registering the kitten(s) is also the registered owner of the sire. The owner of the stud cat must provide a Certificate of Mating to the owner of the queen upon collection of the queen.
Section 1, Rule 3e. A Certificate of mating must state the registered name, breed name/breed description and registration number of the sire, together with the registered name, breed name/breed description and registration number of the dam and the dates of mating, and must be signed by the registered owner(s) or specified keeper of the sire. If a stud cat is loaned without transfer of registered ownership, the registered owner(s) must notify the GCCF office in writing, giving the name and address of the specified keeper and authorisation for that person to sign mating certificates relating to that cat. A copy of this letter must accompany each mating certificate when application to register is made.

Section 1, Rule 3f. If a kitten is sold unregistered, in addition to the pedigree (see Rule 10a) the seller shall supply a copy of the certificate of mating whether or not the seller is the registered owner of the sire. Any application to register the kitten at a later date must be accompanied by this certificate. If either of the parents is not GCCF registered the seller must supply the necessary paperwork to allow the new owner to register the kitten with the GCCF.

Penalty: Stud owner (rule 3d) or seller of kitten(s) (Rule 3f) informed in writing that unless properly completed Certificate of Mating or relevant paperwork from other registering body supplied to Office within 28 days the following shall apply: Fine £50, suspension until Certificate of Mating or other relevant paperwork supplied to the office and the fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Failure to notify the GCCF Office of the loan of the stud cat

Section 1, Rule 3dii

If a stud cat is loaned without transfer of registered ownership, the registered owner(s) must notify the GCCF Office in writing, giving the name and address of the specified keeper and authorised for that person to sign mating certificates relating to that cat. A copy of this letter, paper or electronic, must accompany each mating certificate when application to register is made.

Penalty: First offence: Fine £50, suspension until an address for the stud if confirmed and authorisation supplied to the keeper if necessary and the fine is paid, a second breach will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Acceptance to stud of a queen registered on the Non-Active register

Section 1, Rule 3g. Prior to accepting a queen for mating, the owner of the stud shall establish that the queen is not registered on the Non-Active register. Note: Queens which are not registered with GCCF may be accepted for mating. A queen whose registration with another bona fide organisation is endorsed “not for breeding” should not be accepted.

Penalty: Stud owner: Fine £50, suspension until paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Taking to stud to queen registered on the Non Active Register or endorsed “not for breeding” by another organisation (see Section 1, Rule 3g above)

Penalty: Queen owner: Fine £50, suspension until paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Selling a white cat or kitten

Section 1, Rule 1g) Note: Vendors must advise buyers/potential buyers in writing that white cats may be deaf from soon after birth in one or both ears.

Penalty: Fine £100 suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach, three times the penalty etc.
Failure to supply a correctly completed pedigree

Section 1, rule 10a. When a cat or kitten is advertised or sold as a pedigree cat or kitten, the breeder shall, at the time of sale, provide the purchaser with a properly completed pedigree signed by the breeder, carrying 3 generations at least, showing all the breed numbers and registration numbers, also the breeder’s name and address. If the cat/kitten is not registered, a copy of the mating certificate (Rule 3d) shall be supplied by the vendor to the new owner.

Penalty: Supplier of cat/kitten informed in writing that unless correct pedigree supplied to Office within 28 days the following shall apply: Fine £50 (which includes £25 cost of 4 generation certified pedigree), suspension until fines paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Failure to supply correctly completed transfer form

Section 1, rule 10b i. If, at the time of sale, the cat or kitten is registered the seller shall provide the purchaser the registration card provided by the GCCF Office to enable a transfer of ownership. If this card is lost, damaged or otherwise unavailable a manual transfer form must be provided, duly completed and signed by the seller.

Penalty: Supplier of cat/kitten informed in writing that unless properly completed transfer form supplied to Office within 28 days the following shall apply: Fine £50 + transfer fee, suspension until correct properly completed transfer form supplied to Office and fines paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Selling unvaccinated kittens

Section 1, rule 10b ii. All kittens must have received two doses of vaccine three to four weeks apart, in accordance with the manufacturer’s recommendations against infectious enteritis (FPV), FHV and FCV (“cat Flu”) at least one week prior to sale and/or leaving for a new home.

Penalty: Fine £100 suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach, three times the penalty etc.

Falsifying/failing to provide proper record of genetic/veterinary test

Section 1, rule 10c. If the cat or kitten is sold with a certificate to validate any genetic/veterinary test, it must be microchipped and the chip number must be on the test certificate, the accompanying vaccination record card and the veterinary practice record.

Penalty: Fine £100, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach will be referred to the GCCF Disciplinary Committee.

Failure to supply Certified Pedigree

Section 1, Rule 10d. All persons exporting any registered cat or kitten shall upon despatch apply for a registration/transfer and, if required, a Certified Pedigree of such cat or kitten. Failure to do shall be an offence under Clause 12 of the Bye-Laws.

Penalty: Supplier of cat/kitten informed in writing that unless Certified Pedigree applied for, with correct payment, within 28 days the following shall apply: Fine £60, suspension until Certified Pedigree applied for and fines paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Section 2, Rule 13d. The show management must ensure that veterinary surgeons are conversant with Section 5 of the GCCF Rules and that they are provided with a copy of the official veterinary code.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.
Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Section 2, Rule 13e. The show management must ensure that the duty veterinary surgeon(s) are supplied with the official GCCF rejection forms, the additional form for Section D rejections plus other necessary documentation in addition to the above.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.
Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.
Failure to provide adequate quarantine pens/facilities.

Section 2, Rule 13f. An adequate number of quarantine pens shall be available for the reception of suspect exhibits. These pens must be situated in such a position that the public cannot have access to them. It must be possible to separate the pens so that cats suspected of infections conditions are not close to other cats. The room must be adequately heated and ventilated. If the quarantine pens are occupied they must be checked at regular intervals, these checks are to be recorded.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.

Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Failure to remove to isolation cats as required by the duty vet and check isolated cats.

Section 2, Rule 13h. The show manager must appoint a show official to be in charge of veterinary matters at the show; in the absence of the owner or owner’s representative, it shall be their duty to move to isolation any cat which, in the duty veterinary surgeon’s opinion, requires removal from the show hall. This official shall ensure that cats in isolation are checked at regular intervals and a record kept.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.

Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Failure to check microchip/documentation of cats from overseas.

Section 2, Rule 13i. If any cat which is resident in a country other than England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Chanel Islands or Eire has been entered in the show, the show management shall ensure that the microchip of the cat is checked against its importation documents before admitting the cat into the show. If the microchip cannot be read or does not conform with the documentation, that cat shall be excluded from the show.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.

Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Failure to pass on requests for the duty vet or provide appropriate request slips.

Section 2, Rule 13j. Requests to a duty veterinary surgeon to examine a cat during the show must be made by the show management either directly or, in the case of requests from judges or stewards, on official slips provided by the show management. Any other person who may have reasonable grounds for thinking that such an examination is desirable must apply to the show management.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.

Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Not accepting decisions made by duty vet.

Section 2, Rule 13m. Decisions made by a duty veterinary surgeon in pursuance of his duty at the show shall be accepted without question.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.

Official Show Manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Allowing ineligible cats to go forward to Best in Show.

Section 2, Rule 16a. Best in Show or Best of Variety, where held, shall be confined to; Persian, Semi Long Hair, British, Foreign, Burmese, Oriental and Siamese.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.

Fixed penalties amended October 2019

GCCF DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES – FIXED PENALTIES

Refusing to accept classes they are qualified to judge.

Section 3 Rule 4b. Judges should ensure, to the best of their ability that they abide by the restrictions on frequency of judging defined in the GCCF Code of Conduct for Judges. Other than for this reason, having accepted an invitation to a particular show, Judges should not refuse to accept classes for any breeds for which they are listed as full or pupil judges.

Penalty: Fine £50 to be paid within 28 days, disqualification from judging until fine paid.

Non submission of Judges show reports to the official GCCF website/publication.

Section 3, Rule 4c. Acceptance of an engagement by a judge places that judge under an obligation to both the show management and prospective exhibitors to attend and officiate at the show in question and to send within the specified time a report to the GCCF official publication or website as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Penalty:

Judges will be prompted on or after the end of the 28 day period and reminded to submit the report(s) within 7 days. After the 7 days have lapsed the judge will be considered to be “late” with their report. Failure to provide a report(s) after the reminder period will be considered as a breach of the above rule. (Amended June 2014)

First breach of this rule will result in an official warning plus Judge must submit the report for publication within 28 days of the date of the warning letter.

Second breach of this rule within the show year will result in a £25 fine, such fine to be paid within 28 days of request and relevant report/s must also be published on the GCCF Website within 28 days.

Third breach of this rule within the show year will result in a £50 fine, such fine to be paid within 28 days of request and relevant reports/s must also be published on the GCCF Website within 28 days.

Fourth breach of this rule within the show year will result in a fine of £100 and automatic suspension from judging for a minimum period of 6 months with effect from two weeks after the suspension letter

If judges fail to pay the fine and/or submit their reports within the allotted time they will be notified that they are *suspended from judging for a minimum period of 3 months with effect from two weeks after the date of the suspension letter. If however after any period of suspension has elapsed they have still not paid the fine or submitted all the reports the suspension will continue until they do so. Any subsequent breaches of this rule will result in the matter being referred to the GCCF Investigation Committee.

Note: During a period of suspension, any contract a suspended judge has with a show is nullified, enabling affected show managers to appoint replacement judges immediately. A suspended judge may not resume judging nor accept invitations to do so until they have received a letter from the GCCF advising them the suspension is lifted. A suspended judge cannot be included in any schedule or catalogue published during the suspension period (unless already printed). Any further engagements agreed to by the judge at the time of the suspension shall be cancelled with no automatic right of reinstatement when the penalty applied has been completed. Relevant show managers will be informed of suspensions and when they are lifted.

*In this notice ‘suspension’ and ‘suspended’ relate only to suspension from judging and no other GCCF activity.
Judging Open, Grand, Imperial Grand, Assessment miscellaneous classes restricted to breeds which they are ineligible to judge.

Section 3, Rule 4e. At Championship shows, classes restricted to particular breed(s), colours or patterns (e.g. self/non-self) may be judged only by judges appointed to a list which includes cats eligible to enter the class in question.

Penalty: An official warning on the first breach. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in a fine of £10, disqualification from judging until paid if not paid within 28 days of request. A third breach of this rule will result in double the penalty, a fourth breach three times the penalty etc. A refund of show entry fees to all exhibitors in an Open class that have been allocated and judged by a GCCF judge not eligible to judge the class.

Judges (or their household) competing at show when judging

Section 3, Rule 4f - See Section 2 Rule 8d

Failure by judge/show manager to rectify errors in cat’s breed/age and ensure appropriate checks are made prior to disqualification.

Section 3, Rule 9e. A judge must disqualify from any class any exhibit which, in their opinion, is ineligible for the class in question (incorrect breed, sex or colour) despite matching the description in the judge’s book, after checking with the show manager that the class description is correct. The disqualification will apply to that class only.

Penalty: Official warning.

Section 3, Rule 9f. A judge may disqualify from any class any exhibit which, in their opinion, is very undersized for its age or in very poor condition. Prior to such disqualification the judge must request the show manager to check the entry form to ensure that the correct age has been transcribed. A duty veterinary surgeon should be consulted to decide if the exhibit should be rejected under section A, or may be permitted to be judged in other classes.

Penalty: Official warning.

Section 3, Rule 9g. A judge may mark as “wrong colour”, “wrong pattern” or “does not conform to SOP”, unless otherwise instructed by the SOP, any exhibit which, in their opinion, is incorrectly identified by colour/pattern in their judge’s book after first requesting the show manager to check the entry form to ensure that there has been no transcription error. This does not constitute a disqualification.

Penalty: Official warning.

Section 3, Rule 9h. Any exhibit which cannot be safely handled by a judge and/or judge’s steward will be disqualified in those classes, including consideration for Best of Breed, in which it could not be handled, with forfeiture of the relevant entry fees. A judge’s decision in this matter is final.

Penalty: Official warning.

Failure by Stewards to help at BIS

Section 3, Rule 10c. To be available for carrying to the Best-In-Show Panel any cats nominated for Best-In-Show judging.

Penalty: Official warning.

Stewarding for Judge under whom they are exhibiting.

Section 3, Rule 10e. No person may steward at all for any judge under whom he or a member of his household is exhibiting in an Open, Grand, Imperial Grand, UK Grand or Assessment class. This shall also include cats not entered in the Open but to be considered for Best of Breed. This rule also applies to any person who is acting as an agent for the owner of a cat entered in a relevant class. “Agent” is defined as “any person given responsibility by the owner for the cat on show day”.
Penalty: An official warning and disqualification from the show. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in a fine of £50 and disqualification from the show. A third breach of this rule will result in a fine of £100 and disqualification from the show.

Obtaining information about identity/ownership of exhibit prior to completion of engagement.
Section 3, Rule 11. Judges are forbidden to inspect catalogues or otherwise obtain information as to the ownership or identity of exhibits until after they have completed their engagement. Necessary information with regard to the age, sex, alleged breed number of particular exhibits may be obtained from the show manager who will extract such information from the appropriate entry form.
Note: Judges must insist that any such information required by them be taken from the entry form and not from the catalogue, since the latter may be in error.
Penalty: A fine of £100 to be paid within 28 days. Disqualification from Judging until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Handling catalogue by steward before end of duties.
Section 3, Rule 12. Stewards are forbidden to handle catalogues until their judge has concluded his duties.

or entered for any show or public exhibition held less than thirteen days prior to or following the date of this show/exhibition.
NB. The owner of a cat is the person so named in the GCCF Register (Section 4 Rule 1b).
Penalty: Fine £100, suspension until paid. Disqualification from the show.
A second breach of this rule within three years will result in a disqualification from showing for three months and double the penalty, a third breach will result in a three month suspension and three times the penalty etc.

Exhibiting at a show and a seminar less than thirteen days apart
Penalty: Fine £50, suspension until paid. Disqualification from the show.
A second breach of this rule within three years a disqualification from showing for three months and double the penalty, a third breach will result in a three month suspension and three times the penalty etc.

Declaration re infection etc. on back of entry form – any breach Section 4, Rule 3c (1). In the event of ear mite infestation being diagnosed in my/our cattery/household by a veterinary surgeon, no cat owned by me/us or living at the same address will attend any show/exhibition until such time as all the cats owned by me/us and/or living at the same address have been examined by a veterinary surgeon and pronounced free from ear mite infestation.
Section 4, Rule 3c (2). In the event of ringworm infection being diagnosed in my/our cattery by a veterinary surgeon, I/we will inform the GCCF Office and neither I/we nor any cat owned by me/us or living at the same address will attend any show/exhibition until a Clearance Certificate, as required by the GCCF, has been obtained. I/we understand that these restrictions will also apply if Ringworm is diagnosed in any cat/kitten exhibiting lesions within 7 days of leaving my/our cattery/household.
Section 4, Rule 3c (3). In the event of any other infectious disease, with the exception of Feline Leukaemia Virus of Feline Immunodeficiency Virus, being diagnosed by a veterinary surgeon in my/our cattery/household, no cat owned by me/us or living at the same address will attend any show/exhibition until at least one month after all cats owned by me/us and or/living at the same address have been examined by a veterinary surgeon and pronounced free from any evidence of the disease in question.
Section 4, Rule 3c (4). Cats showing a positive reaction to the Feline Leukaemia Virus blood test of the Feline Immunodeficiency Virus blood test must not be shown.
N.B. Council strongly recommends that all cats should be tested regularly. Vaccination against Feline Leukaemia is also available.

Rule 3d. I agree to abide by any decision regarding rejection made by a duty veterinary surgeon.

Rule 3e. To the best of my knowledge, the cat(s) entered for this show has/have not been subjected to any surgery to correct any defect listed in the GCCF Standard of Points.

Penalty: Fine £100, suspension until paid.
A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Exhibiting queens who have kittensed or that may be pregnant within the past 12 weeks

Section 4, Rule 4a. Queens who are pregnant, or could be pregnant, lactating or who have kittensed within the past 12 weeks may not compete and must not be exhibited at any show or exhibition and a duty veterinary surgeon is instructed to reject any queen in these conditions.

Penalty: Fine £100, suspension until paid, disqualification from showing for six months thereafter.
A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Failure by show manager to report any cat rejected on grounds of condition

Section 4 Rule 4h. Any cat or kitten rejected by a duty veterinary surgeon or disqualified by a judge on grounds of condition should be reported to the GCCF Office by the show manager when the veterinary rejection slips are returned.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.
Official show manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Suitable Containers; availability of owner/agent during show and unauthorised removal from pen.

Section 4, Rule 6. Exhibits must arrive at the show hall in a suitable container (top-opening recommended) and must be accompanied by the owner or the owner’s agent. The owner or his agent must be within call throughout the period of the show except for those times when the hall is cleared for judging. All cats must be removed from pens prior to dismantling but must not be removed during the period of the show without the explicit permission of the show manager.

Penalty: Fine £50, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Evasion of Vetting-in Section 4, Rule 7a. Exhibits must be presented on arrival at the show for examination before entering the penning area and must be so presented during the times stated in the show schedule. Late arrivals may be refused entry.

Evasion or attempted evasion of this rule will lead to disciplinary action by the GCCF. All decisions of a duty vet are final and no appeal will be entertained.

Penalty: Fine £100, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Failure to make available necessary information to cat owners adjacent to “vetted out” cat.

Section 4, Rule 7d. If a cat is removed to isolation following rejection by a duty veterinary surgeon after judging has commenced, information regarding the section under which the cat is rejected should be available to the adjacent exhibitors through the show manager.
and the duty vet should explain the potential risks involved to the adjacent exhibitors. (see Section 2, Rule 13g and Notes on Rejection in the GCCF Rules).

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.
Official show manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Failure by show manager to correct errors in class placements or descriptions due to managerial errors

Section 4, Rule 8c. Exhibits which may have been placed in wrong classes or wrongly identified as a result of errors on entry forms will be disqualified. Show managements, however, are permitted to accept corrections, at their own discretion. Errors which have occurred as typing, printing or other managerial mistakes must be corrected if pointed out at a reasonable time during the show, and/or the exhibitor compensated for any loss.

Penalty: Official Show Manager’s warning.
Official show manager’s warnings will be taken into consideration when show licences are considered.

Entering two shows less than thirteen days apart (excluding back to back shows) but not exhibiting at both of them

Section 4, Rule 9. Exhibitors entering cats in two shows within 13 days (excluding back to back shows) but not exhibiting at both shows in contravention of Rule 3b shall be reported to the GCCF Office who shall apply the appropriate sanction as defined in the published penalties listing. Persistent or deliberate breaches of this rule may render exhibitor/s liable to disciplinary action.

Penalty: A written warning shall be sent for the first offence. Second and subsequent breaches within three years: Fine £50, suspension until paid.

Unauthorised withdrawal from competition after entering show hall

Section 4, Rule 13. Except in so far as the conditions under which entry was made may be changed, exhibits may not be withdrawn from competition after entering the show hall unless such withdrawal is sanctioned by the show manager. In case of such sanctioned withdrawal, entry and penning fees will be forfeited. (See Section 2, Rule 10b).

Penalty: Fine £50, disqualification from the show, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Entering show whilst disqualified

Section 4, Rule 15. No entries for any show held under the rules of the GCCF of cats and/or kittens which have been disqualified by an order of the Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the provisions of Clause 12 (4) of the Bye-Laws may be made during their period of such disqualification. Any entry made in contravention of this rule shall result in the forfeiture of all fees and awards and may render any person concerned or connected with such entry liable to disciplinary action.

Penalty: Fine £75, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Presentation and attempts to identify exhibits.

Section 4, Rule 16. Every exhibit must be provided with a white sanitary tray and clean, plain white or near-white blanket or blankets without distinctive marking or edging which may be arranged in such a manner as to assist the comfort of the cat. Cellular blankets are not allowed but white Vet-Bed or like material may be used if preferred.
When a breach of this rule is drawn to their attention, show managers may disqualify any exhibit appearing with a dirty, coloured or otherwise distinctive blanket. All fees and awards relating to any exhibit thus disqualified shall be forfeit.

Note: Rules 4. 1d, 4. 16 and 4. 18 do not apply to cats on exhibition who are not being judged with reference to their Standard of Points

Penalty: Fine £50, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Section 4, Rule 17. A hot water bottle or heat reflecting material or a cool pack may be used but must be concealed by the blanket. No other articles or decorations may be placed in or on the pen until judging has been completed. The only exception to this rule is that a white container with water must be placed in the pen. Containers with food and one small toy may be placed in the pen after the time announced for the admission of the public. Food containers, if used earlier, must be removed before judging. Failure to do so may result in the disqualification of the exhibit by the show manager and in the event all fees and awards shall be forfeited.

Penalty: Fine £50, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Section 4, Rule 18. Apart from the current show award cards competitive pens must not carry any advertisement or other printed or manuscript matter which might indicate the ownership of the cat except that a judge or show manager may affix a note if a cat is found to be dangerous to handle or is withdrawn from competition.

Note: Rules 4. 1d, 4.16 and 4.18 do not apply to cats on exhibition who are not being judged with reference to their Standard of Points.

Penalty: Fine £50, suspension until fine paid. A second breach of this rule within three years will result in double the penalty, a third breach three times the penalty etc.

Use of unauthorised grooming aids in show hall

Section 4, Rule 21a. The use of grooming aids in the show hall other than the use of a clean brush and comb or cloth is prohibited.
