

Ian Fleming

It is with great sadness that I report the death of Ian Fleming, husband of the late Jennifer Fleming. He was a well known character in the Cat Fancy who could always be relied upon. He and Jen were show mangers for the Cumberland CC for many years.

My sincere condolences to the family.

It was with great sadness that the Cumberland Cat Club Committee received the news of the unexpected death of Mr Ian Fleming on Sunday 17th January 2021.

Ian was the long-standing chairman of the Cumberland Cat Club and was also joint show manager of our annual show along with his late wife Jennifer. Ian was kind, approachable and always willing to help. Both Ian and Jennifer were very loyal to the Russian Blue breed and over the years bred many beautiful cats, under their prefix, Shoelina.

Our deepest condolences go to Ruth, Nicholas and their families at this sad time.
