I was notified about Jordan's death, early on Monday morning, I remember her for her great sense of humour and general joie-de-vivre, along with the double act with one of her main (no pun intended, well just a small one) competitors, Janet Wilshaw.

Jordan lived a very full life and she along with Sally bred some wonderful cats, though in the last few years she had returned to her earlier glory days. Though many may not know it, Jordan was one of the first Punks and one Vivienne Westwood's early models and was associated with Adam Ant and his band and could regale many with tales of her earlier youthful exploits. In her life post her punk days, she had taken up cat breeding along with Sally, one of most memorable was possibly her double winner as an Adult and Neuter. Berry as she was known at home, but on the show circuit held the illustrious title of Supreme UK Imperial Gold Grand Champion & Supreme UK Imperial Gold Grand Premier Mainman Kisschase, though by no means her only winner, she is the only cat to hold such titles as such this is a huge accolade, Jordan and Sally bred a great many titled Burmese cats in a wide variety of colours. Too many to list for fear of omitting one of them.

The prefix she and Sally shared was Mainman which is a prefix many of you will be familiar with.

Jordan sadly died of Bile Duct Cancer on Sunday 3rd April at 9 pm. There is a tribute in the local Seaford paper, the link is below.

Condolences to her family & friends, a great many of whom knew her far better than I

Words cannot ease pain,
But they can make you ponder on the thoughts they generate,

I was notified of Jordan's passing on Monday, I remember her for her great humour, friendly approach and a great sense of friendship.

She once told Sue & I that actually Adam Ant (whom she managed at one point) bought her, her first Burmese Cat, a breed dear to my heart, she was without doubt a well known celebrity in the cat world and had many titled cats.

It is with great sadness, that I have to write this, my condolences to family & friends, this is one of the most poignant memories I have and will continue to cherish those memories for many years to come.

Rest in peace.
